The following footnote references apply only if the table above has a foot number reference.

1. Phase in value comes from the data base at the Maryland Department of Assessments and Taxation <http://www.dat.state.md.us/>, Real Property Data Search. The phase in value is for the next fiscal year, if available, otherwise the phase in value is for current fiscal year.
2. Tax rates come from the current property tax bill, which also may include several non-tax charges, at the web page of the County Government's Department of Finance: <https://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/finance>. Look for a link to "Pay or view your property tax bill on line".
3. County Property Tax is the sum of the General Fund tax and several special fund taxes.
4. All non-tax charges (for example Solid Waste, Water Quality Protection, Bay Restoration Fund, WSSC) are the charges in the current fiscal year. These charges may be different in the next fiscal year.
5. This property is located in an existing development district. Each year a special development district assessment must be paid. Effective every July 1st, the rate will change based on changes in the property assessment and debt service requirements. More information is available in the FAQ section of this website.
6. You must update the estimate for the property taxes and other non-tax charges
 - a. Every July 1, because the tax rates, phase-in values, and other non-tax charges will or may change; AND ALSO
 - b. In early January if the calculation used the phase-in value for the current fiscal year instead of the phase-in value for the next fiscal year, because SDAT had not yet specified the phase in value for the next fiscal year. This occurs in the period July 1 - early January in the third year of the three year assessment cycle.
7. This property is located in a proposed development district. At some date in the future, development district taxes may be levied to pay debt service on bonds issued to build infrastructure in the district. It is important that property owners recognize that this additional tax may be levied in the future. The rate indicated above is an estimate and will change once the district is created and bonds are issued. More information is available in the FAQ section of this website.
8. The Proposed Estimated Total includes all actual and proposed taxes and non-tax charges relative to this property.
9. This is a one time charge assessed against this property and is not an annual fee. It should be paid before the property is sold and will remain due until paid.

Consent for Dual Agency

(In this form, the word "seller" includes "landlord"; "buyer" includes "tenant"; and "purchase" or "sale" includes "lease".)

When Dual Agency May Occur

The possibility of Dual Agency arises when:

- 1) The buyer is interested in a property listed by a real estate broker; and
- 2) The seller's agent and the buyer's agent are affiliated with the same real estate broker.

Important Considerations Before Making a Decision About Dual Agency

A broker or the broker's designee, acting as a dual agent does not exclusively represent either the seller or buyer; there may be a conflict of interest because the interests of the seller and buyer may be different or adverse. As a dual agent, the real estate broker does not owe undivided loyalty to either the seller or buyer.

Before the buyer and seller can proceed to be represented by a broker acting as a dual agent, they must both sign Consent for Dual Agency. If the buyer has previously signed this Consent for Dual Agency, the buyer must affirm the buyer's consent for the purchase of a particular property before an offer to purchase is presented to the seller. If the seller has previously signed Consent for Dual Agency, the seller must affirm the seller's consent for the sale of the property to a particular buyer before accepting an offer to purchase the property. The affirmation is contained on Page 2 of this form.

Your Choices Concerning Dual Agency

In a possible dual agency situation, the buyer and seller have the following options:

1. Consent in writing to dual agency. If all parties consent in writing, the real estate broker or the broker's designee (the "dual agent") shall assign one real estate agent affiliated with the broker to represent the seller (the seller's "intra-company agent") and another agent affiliated with the broker to represent the buyer (the buyer's "intra-company agent"). Intra-company agents are required to provide the same services to their clients that agents provide in transactions not involving dual agency, including advising their clients as to price and negotiation strategy.
2. Refuse to consent to dual agency. If either party refuses to consent in writing to dual agency, the real estate broker must terminate the brokerage relationship for that particular property with the buyer, the seller, or both. If the seller terminates the brokerage agreement, the seller must then either represent him or herself or arrange to be represented by another real estate company. If the buyer terminates the brokerage agreement the buyer may choose not to be represented but simply receive assistance from the seller's agent, from another agent in that company, or from a subagent from another company. Alternatively, the buyer may choose to enter into a written brokerage agreement with a different company.

Duties of a Dual Agent and Intra-Company Agent

Like other agents, unless the client gives consent to disclose the information, dual agents and intra-company agents must keep confidential information about a client's bargaining position or motivations. For example, without written consent of the client, a dual agent or intra-company agent may not disclose to the other party, or the other party's agent:

- 1) Anything the client asks to be kept confidential; *
- 2) That the seller would accept a lower price or other terms;
- 3) That the buyer would accept a higher price or other terms;
- 4) The reasons why a party wants to sell or buy, or that a party needs to sell or buy quickly; or
- 5) Anything that relates to the negotiating strategy of a party.

* Dual agents and intra-company agents must disclose material facts about a property to all parties.

How Dual Agents Are Paid

Only the broker receives compensation on the sale of a property listed by that broker. If a financial bonus is offered to an agent who sells property that is listed with his/her broker, this fact must be disclosed in writing to both the buyer and seller.

Consent for Dual Agency

I have read the above information, and I understand the terms of the dual agency. I understand that I do not have to consent to a dual agency and that if I refuse to consent, there will not be a dual agency; and that I may withdraw the consent at any time upon notice to the dual agent. I hereby consent to have

SELLER HOME WARRANTY DISCLOSURE

Selling your Home with a Home Warranty

A Home Warranty is a residential service agreement that provides for the repair or replacement of a home's covered mechanical systems and major appliances that break down due to normal wear and tear. It can offer you protection while your home is for sale, and may make your home more attractive to potential buyers. A seller offering a Home Warranty may receive offers that otherwise would not have been made.

Having a Home Warranty in effect while the home is for sale may protect you against costly repairs, and may help to avoid conflicts over a malfunctioning warranted item that could affect or delay your settlement. Additionally, the warranty may be passed on to the buyer for a period of one year from the date of settlement, depending on the terms of the particular agreement.

Typical components a Home Warranty could cover (depending on warranty provider)

- Air Conditioning
- Door Bell Chimes
- Garbage Disposal
- Hot Water Heater
- Ceiling Fans
- Trash Compactor
- Central Vacuum
- Electrical Systems
- Garage Door Opener
- Microwave (built-in)
- Plumbing System
- Washer/Dryer
- Dishwasher (built-in)
- Faucets
- Heat
- Oven/Range
- Refrigerator
- Water Softener

Long & Foster encourages its sellers to obtain a Home Warranty and to that end, we can make available various brochures and product descriptions for you to review so that you can make an informed decision regarding Home Warranty coverage.

After having read the foregoing, we hereby acknowledge that a Long & Foster sales associate has made available to us certain information concerning Home Warranty Programs. We understand that we may choose to accept or decline any or all of the programs presented to us.

ADDENDUM Covid-19 Virus Planning

This ADDENDUM is intended to amend a certain Purchase Agreement, Binder or Contract dated 03/21/20 (the "Agreement") concerning real property located at: 1815 Reodie Drive Silver Spring, MD 20902 between the undersigned parties.

The parties recognize that the COVID-19 virus (a/k/a coronavirus) may cause unanticipated delays in processing the financing application, government actions to quarantine or require "social distancing", their own availability should they take sick, and the availability of building inspectors, attorneys and land record offices. While the parties acknowledge that such delays, if any, may be unlikely, they believe it is prudent to make the following amendments to their Agreement:

1. Buyer(s) shall endeavor to require their inspectors and contractors who are provided access to the interior living areas of the Property in order to conduct tests, inspections and other due diligence to wash their hands or use hand sanitizing products prior to conducting such tests, inspections and other due diligence and to clean doorknobs, faucet handles, countertops and other areas they touch with cleaning products provided by Seller(s).
2. Buyer(s) shall endeavor to order title and municipal record searches as soon as due diligence and any negotiations concerning due diligence have been completed and pay the usual charges for those services.
3. Seller(s) shall notify Buyer(s) as soon as possible if any person residing in the Property tests positive for, is being treated for the COVID-19 virus or is under quarantine or "social distancing" as a result of exposure to COVID-19. In that event, Buyer(s) at Buyer(s) option may extend the date for completion of due diligence for a period not exceeding fourteen (14) days.
4. In the event that either Buyer or Seller cannot close on the date set forth in the Purchase Agreement due to a delay caused by an Act of God, government mandated quarantine or an illness to a party or a party's attorney or settlement agent due to or resulting from COVID-19, that party who cannot close shall promptly notify the other party. If such Notice is given, the Closing date shall be extended to a mutually agreeable date not longer than thirty (30) days from the original Closing date. Buyer OR Seller OR both parties, divided equally, shall be held responsible for the cost of any nonrefundable fee actually incurred by BUYER to extend, refresh or renew any mortgage commitment granted Buyer by Buyer's lender pursuant to the provisions of the Purchase Agreement that would expire during the thirty (30) day extension period.

NOTIFICATION OF DUAL AGENCY WITHIN A TEAM

A team that provides real estate brokerage services must consist of two or more associate brokers or salespersons, or a combination of the two, who:

1. work together on a regular basis;
2. represent themselves to the public as being part of one entity; and
3. designate themselves by a collective name such as "team" or "group."

The team operates within a brokerage, and team members are supervised by a team leader as well as by the broker, and, if they work in a brokerage branch office, by the branch office manager.

The law permits one member of a team to represent the buyer and one member to represent the seller in the same transaction only if certain conditions are met. If both parties agree, the broker of the real estate brokerage with which the salespersons or associate brokers are affiliated, or broker's designee (the "dual agent") shall designate one team member as the intra-company agent for the buyer and another team member as the intra-company agent for the seller. No one else may make that designation.

The law also requires that the buyer and seller each be notified in writing that the two agents are members of the same team, and that the team could have a financial interest in the outcome of the transaction in addition to any financial benefit obtained by selling one of the broker's own listings. THIS FORM CONSTITUTES YOUR NOTICE OF THOSE FACTS.

Dual agency may occur only if both parties consent to it, and sign the Consent for Dual Agency form prescribed by the Real Estate Commission. If you have concerns or questions about being represented by a team member when another team member represents the other party, you should address these to the broker or branch office manager before signing the Consent form. This form must be presented to the buyer and seller at the time that the real estate licensee presents the disclosure of agency relationships. For the seller, that should occur no later than when the seller signs the listing agreement. For the buyer, that should occur no later than the initial scheduled showing of property.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF NOTICE

LONG & FOSTER

FAIR HOUSING FOR OWNERS OF RESIDENTIAL REAL ESTATE

Non-discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, familial status, national origin, and/or other protected classes in the sale and rental of residential real estate is fundamental to our nation's principles of fairness and freedom. Federal, state, and local fair housing laws which prohibit discrimination against these protected classes apply to the marketing, sale, and/or rental of many residential properties. As REALTORS®, it is our duty to inform our clients about these laws in order to promote compliance with the fair housing laws and objectives. We, at Long & Foster® Real Estate, Inc., have therefore, developed this advisory for your information and use.

The fair housing laws of many local governments, such as counties and municipalities, include "protected classes" in addition to those (race, color, religion, familial status, etc.) listed above. One such class is that related to "source of income." The federally-funded Housing Choice Voucher program provides direct government payments to landlords who rent to eligible holders of the program's vouchers. Although at the federal level, the program is voluntary, in the District of Columbia as well as Montgomery and Howard Counties in Maryland, local laws prohibit landlords and owners of rental property from discriminating against voucher holders based on source of income in the terms and conditions of rental housing or in the application of income requirements. This prohibition of discrimination against voucher holders includes refusing to rent to voucher holders, misrepresenting availability of rental housing to voucher holders, and discriminatory advertising about voucher holders based on source of income. Threats, intimidation, coercion, and retaliation against assertion of a fair housing right by voucher holders is also prohibited as is enforcing any policy or practice that may have an inadvertent discriminatory impact on voucher holders.

Participation in the housing choice voucher program comes with many advantages for landlords, including timely rent payments and competitive rents. We encourage landlords to contact local public housing agencies for further information about landlord and tenant responsibilities in the housing choice voucher program. Different public housing or human rights agencies/commissions may have special incentives for landlords. For more information, contact the District of Columbia Housing Authority, the Housing Opportunities Commission of Montgomery County or the Howard County Housing Commission. If your property is located in another county or municipality, you may wish to contact the public housing or human rights agency of your respective county/municipality.

DEED AND PROPERTY COVENANTS OR RESTRICTIONS OF RECORD

During the history of our country, some persons have placed restrictions on property based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. Generally, these restrictions are void and unenforceable, with limited exceptions for particular types of religious housing and qualified housing for older persons. The publication of these void restrictions may convey a message that the restrictions continue to be valid. Any time a sales associate or broker is asked to provide a copy of the covenants or restrictions of record relating to the use of a property the following message should be included:

These documents may contain restrictions or covenants based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. Such restrictions or covenants generally are void and unenforceable as violations of fair housing laws.

Be assured that all property is marketed and made available without discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. Should you have any questions regarding such restrictions, please contact your attorney.

What Everyone Should Know About Equal Opportunity in Housing

The sale or purchase of a home is one of the most significant events that people will experience in their lifetimes. It is more than the simple purchase of housing, for it includes the hopes, dreams, aspirations, and economic destiny of those involved.

THE LAW

Civil Rights Act of 1866

The Civil Rights Act of 1866 prohibits all racial discrimination in the sale or rental of property.

Fair Housing Act

The Fair Housing Act declares a national policy of fair housing throughout the United States. The law makes illegal any discrimination in the sale, lease or rental of housing, or making housing otherwise unavailable, because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

Americans with Disabilities Act

Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act prohibits discrimination against persons with disabilities in places of public accommodation and commercial facilities.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act

The Equal Credit Opportunity Act makes discrimination unlawful with respect to any aspect of a credit application on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age or because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program.

State and Local Laws

State and local laws often provide broader coverage and prohibit discrimination based on additional classes not covered by federal law.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES

The home seller, the home seeker, and the real estate professional all have rights and responsibilities under the law.

For the Home Seller

You should know that as a home seller or landlord you have a responsibility and a requirement under the law not to discriminate in the sale, rental and financing of property on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. You may not instruct the licensed broker or salesperson acting as your agent to convey for you any limitations in the sale or rental, because the real estate professional is also bound by law not to discriminate. Under the law, a seller or landlord cannot: (1) establish discriminatory terms or conditions in the purchase or rental of housing; (2) advertise a preference for certain buyers or tenants because of their race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin; or (3) misrepresent that housing is unavailable to persons who are members of these protected classes.

For the Home Seeker

You have the right to expect that housing will be available to you without discrimination or other limitations based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

This includes the right to expect:

- housing in your price range made available to you without discrimination
- equal professional service
- the opportunity to consider a broad range of housing choices
- no discriminatory limitations on communities or locations of housing
- no discrimination in the financing, appraising or insuring of housing
- reasonable accommodations in rules, practices and procedures for persons with disabilities
- non-discriminatory terms and conditions for the sale, rental, financing, or insuring of a dwelling
- to be free from harassment or intimidation for exercising your fair housing rights.

For the Real Estate Professional

As a home seller or home seeker, you should know that the term REALTOR® identifies a licensed professional in real estate who is a member of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®. Not all licensed real estate brokers and salespersons are members of the National Association, and only those who are can identify themselves as REALTORS®. They conduct their business and activities in accordance with a strict Code of Ethics. As agents in a real estate transaction, licensed brokers or salespersons are prohibited by law from discriminating on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. A request from the home seller or landlord to act in a discriminatory manner in the sale, lease or rental cannot legally be fulfilled by the real estate professional.
