Recent Home Sale: 10901 JARBOE AVE - $995,000

Remarks Open new possibilities for you and your family in this piece of Washingtonian history that sits on nearly one and a half acres of pure nature in historic Burnt Mills Hills. This expansive, renovated home was designed by architect John Nutter and features 4 bedrooms, 6 full baths, plus a powder room. Enter the foyer and walk through the home art gallery, where your guests will enjoy chatting amongst each other while sipping cocktails before dinner. The remodeled, light-filled gourmet kitchen features granite counters, stainless steel appliances including a six-burner Viking stove, all with exposed brick walls and coffered ceiling. The astounding breakfast area with a wide bay window provides a great view of the French style courtyard patio, perfect for supping your morning coffee. A separate family room can be entered from the kitchen that features an exposed stone wall, beamed ceiling and fireplace, and connects the residence to the second staircase. The main level also features a large living room with three sided sun exposure and large dining room each with its own fireplace. A sun-room, currently used as a work from home office, opens to a large deck where the family and visitors enjoy an amazing view of the property grounds. Upstairs you will find the exquisite master suite with walk-in closet and attached bath with oversized shower and dual shower heads, along with three additional bedrooms and three additional full baths. A lower level offers the perfect man cave with a full bath and a workshop area. You do not have to be a millionaire to enjoy the secluded carefree country life. This home is filled with character and charm for any size family and is only 20 minutes from Downtown DC. Please join us for an interactive:
