

Recent Home Sale: 7304 FLOWER AVE - $530,000

Remarks Don't miss this hard to find Funky Takoma Bungalow with 4 completely self-contained 1 BR units, each with heating and cooling paid by the tenants. Tenants are easy to find here and rents are subject to the City of Takoma Park Rent Stabilization Agreement. Contact agent for financial details. Each unit has gas cooking, good closet space, and big bright windows. Owner pays water/sewer and gas hot water bills. There are 5 electric and 5 gas meters. These apartments each have their own character with mostly large windows that flood you with light, wood floors (tile in basement unit), and the upper-level unit has two adorable balconies at front and rear with the latter having a view of the creek way below. The basement has a bonus huge enclosed porch that could be used for a great Art Studio that is outside of the walls. Heating and cooling are provided by 9 heat pumps built into the walls. This is a block of multi-family and single family homes and some of the latter have sold close to the million dollar range. It's a short stroll down the hill to an entrance to the park with miles of trails. Tenants love the location and it's so easy to reach commuter buses on Carroll and Flower, or at New Hampshire Avenue. The property was inspected in 2018 by Montgomery County and found to have no violations. It's vacant so you can owner occupy some units and/or pick your preferred tenant group. Unit 1 has been an owner unit and is not currently licensed with the county while the others are. There's parking for 4 cars out front with additional street parking. It's a short ride to downtown Takoma Park's restaurants and shops and the Metro Station. The sale is subject to City and County first rights of refusal. Contact agent for details!
